

Lesson 2 Vocab Juniors

All the words in this lesson contain the Latin root spect (also spelled spic) or its Greek equivalent scop (also spelled scope), both meaning “view or look.”

Part A. Define the Example Words (use a dictionary or Google it)

Word	Definition of the word
1. auspice
2. circumspect
3. conspicuous
4. horoscope
5. introspection
6. microscopy
7. periscope
8. perspective
9. perspicacious
10. prospect
11. retrospective
12. spectacle
13. spectator
14. spectral
15. suspect

Part B. Synonyms and Antonyms

Example	Synonyms	Antonyms
1. auspice
2. circumspect
3. conspicuous
4. introspection
5. perspective
6. perspicacious
7. prospect
8. retrospective
9. spectator
10. spectral

Part C. Sketchnote Draw a picture representing the word

auspice	horoscope	periscope	spectator	spectral	suspect

Part D. Quick Match (use a dictionary or Google it)

Term	Definition
_____ 1. auspice	A. a way of regarding something; a point of view
_____ 2. circumspect	B. the possibility or likelihood of some future event occurring
_____ 3. conspicuous	C. the extent of the area or subject matter
_____ 4. introspection	D. looking back on or dealing with past events or situations
_____ 5. perspective	E. standing out so as to be clearly visible
_____ 6. perspicacious	F. a divine or prophetic token.
_____ 7. prospect	G. a person who watches at a show, game, or other event.
_____ 8. retrospective	H. having a ready insight into and understanding of things
_____ 9. scope	I. wary and unwilling to take risks
_____ 10. spectacle	J. of or like a ghost
_____ 11. spectator	K. a visually striking performance or display
_____ 12. spectral	L. the examination of one's own mental and emotional processes

Part F. Write 2 sentences using any vocabulary word in an inversion style sentence structure: emphasize the first phrase: "Seldom have I..." or "Never have you..." or "Rarely has she..."

word	Sentence
spectacle	Rarely have I ever seen such a spectacle as when John had a fit over a lost video game.

Part F - Quizlet Practice Go onto Quizlet.com (sign in) and practice Vocabulary games 2 pts

Learn	Match	Test